The Court grants plaintiff's motion ^{the deadline for} to extend limited jurisdictional discovery, but only to the extent consented to by defendants, April 30, 2018. With defendants' consent, the Court rules that if Judge Dearie sustains plaintiff's as-yet-to-be-filed objection to this Court's 3/12/18 Memorandum and Order, plaintiff will be permitted to conduct supplemental depositions of witnesses who testify subject to the limitations set by this Court, and discovery may have to be further extended. This ruling and those limitations apply to the Rule 30(b)(6) witnesses and any witness testifying in a personal capacity as to similar financing topics.

The parties are urged to promptly file plaintiff's objections and defendants' response thereto.
